

HBCU

Library Alliance

The 9th HBCU Library Alliance Membership Meeting is gaining momentum! Twenty-six institutions representing 90 individuals have registered for the June 1-2 virtual meeting. The meeting theme So You Know Who We Are: HBCU Libraries In Full View provides many opportunities for members, student interns, and partners to connect and share experiences through conference presentations and project updates. We are honored that Dr Carla Hayden, Librarian of Congress, will virtually greet and welcome the membership into this important space of reflection and action.

Creating Access to HBCU Library Alliance Archives: Needs, Capacity, and Technical Planning

Membership focus groups and individual institution interviews are being scheduled for the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation-funded Creating Access project, in partnership with the Council on Library and Information Resources (CLIR), the seventeen-month planning grant will identify common barriers and shared visions for creating access to historic collections held by libraries at Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs).

Summer 2021 Conservation/ Preservation Internship

A Committee has been established to make selection decisions for the Summer 2021 Conservation/ Preservation Internship project. Host sites and mentors are preparing to engage eight students in a six-week virtual program that includes instruction and hands-on activities. Stay tuned!

Stay tuned!
