

THE CHICAGO RECORD SOLD.

---

H. H. Kohlsaas Buys the Property and Will Consolidate It with The Times-Herald.

CHICAGO, March 26.—Victor F. Lawson will announce in The Record to-morrow morning that he has sold that publication to H. H. Kohlsaas, owner of The Times-Herald. Mr. Lawson will continue the publication of The Chicago Daily News.

The Times-Herald on Thursday morning will become The Record-Herald. Frank B. Noyes, publisher of The Washington Star, and President of The Associated Press, has acquired an interest in The Record-Herald, and will be its publisher. H. H. Kohlsaas devoting his entire time to the editorial conduct of The Record-Herald.

---

A YARN ABOUT J. P. MORGAN.

Alleged Cable Report from London of a Plot Against His Life.

All efforts made last night to ascertain from J. Pierpont Morgan what truth there was in an alleged report from London that letters threatening his life had fallen into the hands of Scotland Yard officers proved fruitless. Inquiries at Mr. Morgan's home, at Madison Avenue and Thirty-seventh Street, were met with the statement that Mr. Morgan could not be seen.

At the clubs, where the report was discussed, it was generally discredited, as was also the statement that Mr. Morgan had postponed his departure for Europe on account of the alleged plot.

---

The New York Times

Published: March 27, 1901

Copyright © The New York Times