Edison Sees Son Graduated.

MONTCLAIR, N. J., June 9.—Among the guests at the commencement exercises of the Montclair Academy here this afternoon was Thomas A. Edison of West Orange, whose son, Theodore Miller Edison, was a member of the graduating class. Young Edison will enter the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. Mrs. Edison assisted in receiving at the annual senior reception of the academy students this evening.

Staten Island Commencement.

Fifteen pupils were graduated yesterday at the Staten Island Academy, St. George. The principal address was made by the Rev. Dr. Frank Warfield Crowder, rector of St. James's Church, Madison Avenue and Seventy-first Street. He spoke on "Americanism," and declared that no citizen of the United States could be a good man unless he were a good American. William G. Willcox, President of the Board of Education, also spoke.

The New York Times
Published: June 10, 1916
Copyright © The New York Times