CHAMPAGNE

One of the most northern wine producing regions in the world, Champagne is located 90 miles north-east of Paris with 34,000 hectares of vines. Surrounding the Champagne hubs of Epernay and Reims, the region produces around a million bottles of Champagne a day.

A technique said to have been invented by Dom Pérignon in 1688, Champagne is made using the traditional method whereby a second fermentation is induced in the bottle, producing CO2 which becomes trapped, resulting in a sparkling wine. Champagne style wines are now replicated all over the world.

These premium wines are usually made from a blend of grapes: Chardonnay to add fruit and elegance; the red grapes, Pinot Noir and Pinot Meunier, for body and backbone.

Billecart-Salmon Brut Le Réserve NV

91pts
Wine Spectator

"A toasty underpinning of brioche and roasted nuts imparts subtle richness to flavors of ripe plum, wild cherry, preserved lemon and saffron. Refreshing and well-knit, with a satiny mousse. Lively finish."

CHAMPAGNE

BILLECART-SALMON

Still family run, the small house of Billecart-Salmon offers a range of black-grape-dominated Champagnes with bright, complex fruit flavours resulting from a long, slow, cool fermentation process. Particularly well known for its elegant Rosé, Billecart-Salmon is a Champagne house for wine lovers: many who discover it drink few other Champagnes thereafter.

Billecart-Salmon Brut Le Réserve	NV	€43.00
Billecart-Salmon Brut Rosé	NV	€66.00

Bollinger La Grande Année Rosé 2015

97pts
Wine Spectator

"Like a racing spinnaker, this is tightly trimmed yet voluminous in character. Toasty notes of roasted almond and vanilla wafer are deftly integrated with sun-dried black cherry, baked peach, blood orange sorbet and candied ginger flavors, all well-defined by racy acidity and a subtle streak of salinity. This is long and fragrant, with pain d'épices, graphite and tea rose notes playing on the finish."

BOLLINGER

Bollinger has been making classic, Pinot-dominated Champagnes with great ageing potential and complexity since 1829. The house style is deliberately oxidative with much of the wine (all of the vintage and reserve wines, and a high proportion of Special Cuvée) being fermented in old oak barrels, resulting in rich toast, apple and spice flavours. A proportion of the reserve wines are aged in magnums under cork keeping the aromas and flavours fresh and helping to make Special Cuvée one of the most complex Non-Vintage Champagnes around.

Dom Pérignon
Rosé
2008
97+pts
The Wine Advocate

"The 2008 Dom Pérignon Rosé continues to drink brilliantly, exhibiting aromas of orange, red berries, pear, pastry, spices and some smoke with time in the glass. Full-bodied, charming, broad and fleshy, with pristine balance, it's a seamless, complete and vinous Champagne of compelling purity and maturity."

DOM PERIGNON

Dom Pérignon, owned by Moët & Chandon, is an exclusively vintage prestige cuvée Champagne. It is made from roughly equal quantities (varying slightly according to the vintage) of Chardonnay and Pinot Noir, grown only in the best vineyard sites in Champagne. During production, the wine s ees no oak and is protected from oxidation as much as possible making it one of Champagne's most reductive, minerally styles with an overarching elegance, harmony and completeness. It is one of the most classic, famous, and eye-catching of all wines and consistently tastes as good as its reputation suggests it will.

Charles Heidsieck
Brut Réserve
NV
92pts
The Wine Advocate

"Charles Heidsieck's NV Brut Réserve opens with aromas of candied lemon peel, ripe pear and pineapple mingling with buttered toast and a hint of burnt sugar. On the palate, it is medium- to full-bodied, charming and textural, with a sweet and fleshy fruit core, succulent yet vibrant acidity and a persistent, toasty finish."

CHARLES HEIDSIECK

Charles Heidsieck founded his eponymous Champagne house in 1851 at the age of 29. He is credited with popularising Champagne in the United States where he became hugely popular and earned the nickname 'Champagne Charlie'. The consistent high quality of the wines means their range is one of the most frequently awarded in Champagne.

Krug
Grande Cuvée
NV
96pts
Wine Spectator

"This classy Champagne waltzes across the palate with fluid poise and grace. The mousse's pointillismlike beads and a vivid frame of acidity buoy the detailed range of aromas and flavors, including chopped cherry, dried apricot, tangerine peel and plum cake notes, plus fragrant hints of grated ginger, lime blossoms, ground coffee and grilled nuts. A tang of salinity drives the racy, lingering finish."

KRUG

Krug is the only Champagne house to have created a prestige cuvée every year since it was founded in 1843. The house's flagship wine, Grande Cuvée, typically contains 35-50% reserve wines chosen from an extensive library of 150 different wines across more than 10 vintages. With fermentation in neutral oak barrels and ageing on the lees well beyond the legal minimum, the wines have incredible depth, richness and complexity and a unique personality all of their own.

LAURENT-PERRIER

Chardonnay forms the core of most of Laurent-Perrier's cuvées giving the wines a fresh, elegant style. The exception to this is their Cuvée Rosé, for which the house is best known. Made from 100% Pinot Noir, it is unusual in that it is made by the tricky 'saignée' method. This is the technique by which the pink colour is obtained through maceration of the skins rather than the addition of red wine (the way most rosé Champagnes are made) and gives Laurent-Perrier Rosé its remarkable flavour.

Laurent-Perrier Cuvée Rosé NV

93pts

Vinous

"Fruity aromatics include freshly crushed raspberry, strawberry and redcurrant, with crunchy ripe red cherry and a hint of Amarena cherries. The palate is wonderfully crisp, slender and taut, yet rich, showcasing vividly expressive red fruits against a backdrop of smooth breadiness and snappy lemon. No wonder this is such a classic. It delivers fruit galore but never tips into opulence."

Laurent-Perrier La Cuvée Brut	NV	€41.00
Laurent-Perrier Grand Siècle	NV	€195.00
Laurent-Perrier Cuvée Rosé	NV	€79.00

MOET & CHANDON

Creating a true slice of Champagne, Moët & Chandon brings the characteristics of all three varieties, Chardonnay, Pinot Noir and Pinot Meunier, into their blends. The wines are vinified non-oxidatively in stainless steel and undergo malolactic fermentation, giving them a soft, light, approachable style with a universal appeal that has made Moët & Chandon the world's most popular Champagne.

Moët & Chandon Grand Vintage Extra Brut 2015

93pts

Vinous

"The 2015 Extra-Brut Grand Vintage is a terrific choice for drinking now, as it is so expressive. Baked apple tart, spice, lemon confit, marzipan and a hint of toastiness are front and center. Open-knit and engaging, the 2015 is a Champagne of pure and total pleasure."

LOUIS ROEDERER

Most famous for their prestige cuvée Cristal which was first created in 1876 for the Tsar of Russia, Alexander II, the house of Louis Roederer is known for the sheer quality and style of their wines across the range. Roederer is the largest owner of organically-farmed (and increasingly, biodynamically-farmed) vineyards in Champagne. The wines are distinguished by their superb balance, finesse and elegance and their fine, creamy mousse.

Louis Roederer Cristal 2016

96pts

Vinous

"The 2016 Cristal is a gracious, elegant Champagne, as it has always been. Floral accents with light tropical overtones distinguish a Cristal that is especially lifted in style. The 2016 is a delicate, restrained Cristal built more on finesse than power. It's a very fine effort in an extremely difficult year. Saline, chalky notes extend the effortless finish."

Ruinart Rosé
NV
93pts
Wine Spectator

"Well-cut acidity is a refreshing sweep in this refined, sculpted rosé Champagne. Frames flavors of white peach, dried white cherry, raspberry coulis and salted Marcona almond as they ride the satiny mousse alongside accents of oyster shell, pickled ginger and lemon thyme. A streak of chalky minerality emerges to drive the finish."

RUINART

Ruinart is Champagne's oldest house, with a history dating back to 1729. The Chardonnay grape is at the heart of all Ruinart's wines giving them freshness and bright fruit aromas. The wines, vinified non-oxidatively in stainless steel, have a minerally character in youth, developing toasty, smoky characteristics with bottle age.

Ruinart Blanc de Blancs	NV	€88.00
Ruinart Rosé	NV	€88.00

SALON

Salon is a tiny house producing what connoisseurs consider to be the quintessential Blanc de Blancs. In minuscule amounts (30,000 bottles a year, if at all) from over 35-year-old vines in Le Mesnil-sur-Oger (one of the greatest crus of the Côte des Blancs), Salon releases on average only about 3 times a decade.

Salon "S" Le Mesnil Blanc de Blancs Magnum	2008	€8,750.00

Taittinger
Comtes de Champagne
2014
97pts
Vinous

"The 2014 Comtes de Champagne is pristine. In this tasting, it comes across as a mini-2008, similar in its linear personality, with just a touch more mid-palate creaminess. Readers will find a Comtes that plays in the realm of tension and energy. Citrus confit, white flowers, chalk, mint and chamomile are all finely sketched. Light tropical overtones grace the finish. What an absolute delight."

TAITTINGER

In a beautiful twist on the norm, the Taittinger family bought back the Champagne House that bears their name from the demerger of a giant multinational in 2006, and the wines - always good - have been on fine form ever since. The house style is one of elegance and clarity of fruit with a creamy texture.

95pts
Wine Spectator

"This graceful Champagne offers hints of smoke and toasted brioche that transition to patisserie apple and blackberry fruit, candied ginger and mandarin orange peel notes. Seamlessly knit and mouthwatering, with a minerally underpinning and a finely detailed, dotted bead. Lush and creamy on the vibrant, lasting finish."

VEUVE CLICQUOT

Often considered the Champagne of the yachting fraternity, with its distinctive yellow-orange livery, the ultra-consistent style of its Pinot-dominated wines is what has made Veuve Clicquot one of the world's most popular classic, dry Champagnes.

Langlois Crémant de Loire Brut Réserve NV

90pts
Vinous

"Persistant tiny bubbles, aromas of lemon pie, lemon curd and a touch of herb and flint. In the mouth, it's warm and generous. Clementine, grapefruit and pear, with bright swirling acidity. Balanced with a creaminess on the clean finish. Very good value."

Andreola Prosecco di Valdobbiadene Col del Forno Rive di Refrontolo Brut 2023

91pts
Decanter

"Blood orange, pear and acacia blossom aromas with a creamy and mouth-filling mousse, bright acidity and citrus, pear and pineapple finish."

Recaredo Terrers Cava Brut Nature 2019

94pts
The Wine Advocate

"The wine is aging at a slow pace but gaining in nuance and complexity with more time with lees; it's serious, subtle, elegant, pretty much the house signature, with pungent flavors, incisive, direct and fresh, lively, with finer bubbles and leesy flavors."

Sparkling wine is arguably the most technical style of wine in the world. Not only do these wines have to undergo a first fermentation in order to make alcohol, but also a second fermentation to produce the carbon dioxide giving the wine its fizz. This is done either in the same way as Champagne, where the second fermentation takes place in the bottle, or by using the tank method where it takes place inside a sealed tank.

Produced all around the world, sparkling wine comes in a huge range of styles, from bone dry to perfumed and floral.

ROSE

Rosé is produced in a variety of styles around the world, although perhaps the best known are those from Provence. Not only is this France's oldest wine region, having been making wine for over 2,600 years, but it is also the only one to focus on rosé.

It even has a research institute dedicated to the style. Dry, crisp and refreshing, these wines are a blend of regional varieties such as Grenache, Carignan and Syrah.

Domaine Tempier Rosé 2024

94pts
Vinous

"Flaunting its trademark perfume of grapefruit peel, savory herbs, white flowers and sea spray, the Tempier Rosé shines in a league of its own. The mineral intensity and concentration through the mid-palate is really on another level in 2024. Supreme balance and textural finesse are the orders of the day. This is wine I consider a must-buy every year, but the 2024 is easily the best edition of Tempier Rosé in recent memory. Best of all, it will easily age for years."

"Delicate and graceful the Rosé Minuty 281 opens slowly with a perfumed blend of mint-laced white peaches, cardamom and dusty stone. It's texturally deep and supple with cooling acidity as a wave of ripe apricot and nectarine washes across the palate, leaving a subtle mineral tinge toward the close. This is undeniably elegant, finishing with a kiss of autumnal spice and candied citrus."

FRANCE

France produces 7-8 billion bottles of wine every year, second only to Italy in terms of volume. A key part of French culture, with 27 billion hectolitres being drunk in France annually, wine is produced throughout the country in every style.

France's long-standing wine heritage gave birth to the appellation system, designed to preserve regional wine styles, which has been emulated all over Europe.

France is also the source of many international grape varieties such as Cabernet Sauvignon, Pinot Noir, Syrah, Sauvignon Blanc and Chardonnay.

FRANCE WHITE ALSACE

Protected by the Vosges Mountains, Alsace is one of the driest regions in France and due to its northern latitude has very long hours of sunshine during the growing season. This helps to ripen the grapes and produce some of the world's finest white wines.

The wines from Alsace are produced from noble varieties such as Riesling, Pinot Gris and Gewurztraminer and unlike elsewhere in France, here, the name of the grape must appear on the label. The best vineyard sites have been given Grand Cru status.

Gewurztraminer Hengst Domaine Zind-Humbrecht 2021

94pts
Vinous

"Here, an earthy reduction comes first. As it dissipates, peach and pear shine through, just edged with a touch of rose petal. The palate is juicy, rounded and generous, almost dripping with peach juice and Mirabelle, but dry. The structure comes from texture rather than acid, which is balanced and fresh. Lovely citrus pith bitterness defines the palate and the dry finish."

Located between the centre and north of France, the Loire valley stretches 600 miles east to west and accounts for 8% of the country's vineyards including the famous appellations of Sancerre, Pouilly-Fumé, Muscadet and Vouvray. Sancerre and Pouilly-Fumé are situated at the far eastern end of the Loire valley and arguably produce the world's greatest expressions of Sauvignon Blanc. Sancerre also produces high quality reds and rosés from Pinot Noir.

The Loire is considered to be France's most diverse wine region given the different climates and soil types such a large region offers, and as such, produces wines in every style.

WHITE BURGUNDY

Burgundy, or Bourgogne, is the source of the most majestic Grand Cru and Premier Cru wines in the world. The polar opposite of Bordeaux with its grand Châteaux, this is a complex region of smallholders with over 3,000 vineyard owners. 15 million cases are produced annually from 100 different appellations spanning 26,000 hectares.

With reds made from Pinot Noir and whites from Chardonnay, these wines are not only long lived, but are also some of the most exceptional on the market.

The region is split into 5 sub-regions:

CHABLIS
COTE DE NUITS
COTE DE BEAUNE
COTE CHALONNAISE
MACONNAIS

The most significant of these for the production of white wines:

CHABLIS
COTE DE BEAUNE
MACONNAIS

CHABLIS

A very well-known name in the world of wine, Chablis is a northern region of 4,900ha celebrated for producing Chardonnays which are austere in character and display steely, fresh minerality. There are 40 vineyards which are classified as Premier Cru, and 7 Grand Cru vineyards which overlook the town of Chablis and the River Serein.

Chablis Butteaux François Raveneau 2019

94pts

Vinous

"The 2019 Chablis Les Butteaux 1er Cru has a supremely focused, mineral-driven bouquet; traces of white flowers, white truffle and fennel come through with time. The palate is poised and delineated, revealing veins of white chocolate and slithers of white peach. A little spiciness surfaces with aeration. This is a gorgeous Butteaux, always one of my favorites from Raveneau. It will age extremely well."

Chablis Preuses William Fèvre 2020

94pts

The Wine Advocate

"This is generally the richest, most fruit-driven grand cru bottling chez Fèvre, but the 2020 Chablis Grand Cru Bougros is a wine of particular distinction. Exhibiting aromas of peach, citrus blossom, bee pollen and oyster shell, it's a medium to full-bodied, satiny and layered wine that's ample but elegant, with racy acids and a long, saline finish."

Vougeot le Clos Blanc de Vougeot Domaine de la Vougeraie 2023

91-93pts

Vinous

"The 2023 Vougeot 1er Cru Le Clos Blanc de Vougeot has a lovely bouquet with apple blossom, wild honey and light clementine scents that are very well defined. The palate is well balanced with good concentration, boasting lightly spiced white peaches and pears. It is quite poised and tensile on the finish. This is a level up from the previous vintage and comes recommended."

"The 2020 Corton-Charlemagne Grand Cru Quintessence de Corton-Charlemagne is brilliant, as has routinely been the case for this bottling for some time now. Unwinding in the glass with notes of crisp Anjou pear, white flowers, toasted bread, nutmeg and orange zest, it's full-bodied, deep and layered, with a concentrated, muscular, multidimensional profile that reflects its Aloxe-Corton origins."

"Bursting with aromas of pear, peach and confit citrus mingled with freshly baked bread and hazelnuts, the 2022 Meursault 1er Cru Les Gouttes d'Or is medium to full-bodied, layered and satiny, with a vibrant but enveloping core of fruit, concluding with a saline finish."

Meursault Charmes
Domaine Comtes Lafon
2018

93-95pts
The Wine Advocate

"The 2018 Meursault 1er Cru Charmes is also showing very well, revealing aromas of pear, crisp yellow orchard fruit, fresh peach, almond paste and white flowers, followed by a medium to full-bodied, satiny and muscular palate that's deep, concentrated and structured, with more texture and a more introverted profile than the more expressive Genevrières. This is another great bottle in the making."

2016

91-93pts

Textural and multidimensional, it will offer a broad drinking window."

DOMAINE DES COMTES LAFON

Domaine des Comtes Lafon is the leading producer in Meursault, with white wines among the finest and most ageworthy in Burgundy. Founded in 1869, the domaine rose to international benchmark status under Dominique Lafon, who reclaimed the vineyards from share-cropping and introduced organic and biodynamic viticulture, before passing the estate to the next generation in 2021.

Le Clavoillon
Domaine Leflaive
2022

Wine Spectator

"Though delineated by its vibrant acidity, this white shows some weight, with a creamy texture enveloping flavors of vanilla, buttery croissant, lime blossoms and hazelnut. Lithe and persistent on the finish, where the notes of lime blossoms carry over, with accents of citronella and baking spices."

DOMAINE LEFLAIVE

Domaine Leflaive is currently crafting what are undoubtedly some of the greatest Chardonnay wines on earth. Production is tiny, demand is stratospheric and prices are deservedly high (and rising). The land is farmed entirely biodynamically which eliminates all chemical intervention. The concentration achieved in the wines is quite remarkable.

DOMAINE ETIENNE SAUZET

Domaine Etienne Sauzet, located in the village of Puligny-Montrachet, is arguably one of Puligny's finest domaines. Established in the early 20th century, today their vineyard holdings total 15 hectares and the domaine is run by great grand daughter of Etienne, Emilie, and her husband Benoit. With mostly premiers crus Puligny-Montrachet vineyards, they craft some of the most sought after white wines in Burgundy.

The Wine Advocate

"A lovely nose of lemon pith, wet stones, spring flowers and toasted nuts. On the palate, the wine is full-bodied, concentrated and multidimensional, with extraordinary intensity and mid-palate depth, a long, lingering finish and an effortless sense of cohesion and completeness. But what's especially impressive about this Chevalier is its grace and textural elegance in this vintage: while its concentration and amplitude certainly reflect the year, nothing is out of place."

"Wafting from the glass with aromas of pear, white flowers, citrus zest, pastry cream and nutmeg, the 2020 Montrachet Grand Cru is full-bodied, ample and multidimensional, with a satiny attack that segues into a fleshy, layered, impressively complete mid-palate. Animated by racy acids and concluding with a long, resonant finish, it's a wine that lives up to this famed vineyard's reputation."

COTE DE NUITS

The Côte de Nuits is a 20km stretch forming the northern part of the Côte d'Or, Burgundy's 'golden slope', and it is here that most of the world's finest examples of Pinot Noir are produced. Named after the region's largest village, Nuits-Saint-Georges, 22 out of Burgundy's 23 red Grands Crus are located here, expressing a variety of styles. They tend to be weightier and deeper coloured than the Pinots produced on the Côte de Beaune. Gevrey-Chambertin, Vougeot and Nuits-Saints-Georges are known for their robust style of wine, whilst Chambolle-Musigny and Vosne-Romanée display finesse and elegance.

COTE DE BEAUNE

Despite the Côte de Beaune being well-known for its white wines, there is actually more red wine produced in the region. The Pinot Noirs from this southern half of the Côte d'Or show softness and finesse with the best examples coming from Beaune, Pommard and Volnay as well as the exceptionally powerful Grand Cru of Corton.

DOMAINE ARMAND ROUSSEAU

Armand Rousseau is at the very top of the Burgundy hierarchy along with Domaine de la Romanée-Conti, Comte Georges de Vogüé and the late Henri Jayer. The wines are nothing less than sensational examples of just how good Pinot Noir can actually be. Absurdly rare and expensive, but for a reason.

"This has a very perfumed, floral bouquet with crushed strawberry and wild cherry scents, potpourri and a hint of lavender - quite Vosne-like in style. The palate is medium-bodied with fine-grain tannins. There is good depth here and fine complexity and salinity on the finish; this reconfigured Les Loups is worth seeking out."

"The 2018 Chambolle-Musigny 1er Cru, from the young vines in Musigny, has more intensity than the Village Cru, coming across slightly more opaque and secretive. The palate is beautifully balanced with saturated tannin and a fine thread of acidity. Full of energy that flows through the sorbet-fresh finish, and silky-smooth in texture. This oft-overlooked cuvée comes highly recommended. Superb."

DOMAINE COMTE GEORGES DE VOGUE

It would be difficult to rank the truly great producers of Burgundy, but it would be more difficult to believe that Comte Georges de Vogüé would not feature in the top three list of every wine expert. With just 12.5 hectares of vineyard, the domaine has been in the same family's hands for over 500 years, and now the 20th generation is at the helm.

BEAUJOLAIS

Made exclusively from the Gamay grape, Beaujolais wines are often light bodied and fruity and delicious served chilled.
The better examples come from the Beaujolais Villages which are on granite hills and offer a more complex flavour profile. Fleurie and Morgon are two of the best known of these crus and can improve over 10 years or so, evolving to taste like Pinot Noir.

BORDEAUX

With 57 different appellations and 10,000 producers, Bordeaux is home to some of the world's finest Châteaux, producing long-lasting wines of exceptional quality. 88% of the production of Bordeaux is red wine, or Claret as it is known in the UK, made from Cabernet Sauvignon, Cabernet Franc and Merlot. Bordeaux is also the source of dry whites made from Sauvignon Blanc and Sémillon, and some of the world's longest-lived sweet wines from Sauternes.

The wines of the Bordeaux left bank were classified in 1855 and only five have attained First Growth status - Château Lafite, Château Mouton Rothschild, Château Latour, Château Margaux and Château Haut Brion. Those Châteaux that made it into any of the five tiers of this classification will have Grand Cru Classé on the label.

LEFT BANK

MEDOC

Home to many of the biggest names in Bordeaux, the Médoc is the most famous red wine region in the world and includes the renowned appellations of St Estèphe, Pauillac, St Julien and Margaux. Situated on the left bank of the Gironde estuary, the best vineyard sites are located on gravelly outcrops close to the river. The left bank is well suited to the production of Cabernet Sauvignon and the wines produced here will generally have this as the dominant grape in the blend.

ST ESTEPHE

This is the most northerly of the important communes of the Médoc. The wines here take on a rustic style due to the high proportion of clay in the soil. As a result they can seem austere in their youth, however they display good acidity and colour and are exceptionally long-lived.

PAUILLAC

Considering that Pauillac is a small region of only 23km^2, three of the five First Growth Châteaux are located here – Château Latour, Château Lafite and Château Mouton Rothschild – with Grands Crus Classés representing 84% of the rest of the production. Fine, deep and gravelly soils mean that the vine roots reach a greater depth here than anywhere else in the Médoc. The resulting wines are intense and display great complexity.

ST JULIEN

St Julien is the smallest of the well-known Médoc communes at only 700ha with a uniform style thanks to the gravelly soils. Despite having no First Growth properties, St Julien is considered to offer the most consistent wines across the board, with impressive offerings year after year.

MARGAUX

The largest commune in the Médoc, and home to First Growth Château Margaux, Margaux is famous for producing the most elegant and alluring wines of the Left Bank. With the lightest and most gravelly soils in the Médoc, the finest examples of Margaux are intensely perfumed whilst also subtle and refined.

PESSAC-LEOGNAN/GRAVES

Pessac-Léognan is a district within Graves that was created in 1986 due to pressure from the vignerons who wanted to disassociate themselves from growers further south in the commune where the soils are much sandier. Pessac-Léognan is home to Château Haut Brion, the only First Growth property outside of the Médoc.

RIGHT BANK

POMEROL

Pomerol is the smallest of the prestigious Bordeaux appellations with around only 150 producers and 740 hectares of vineyards. Demand and prices for these wines are high given that many of these are boutique growers making circa 1,000 cases a year. Pomerol is dominated by Merlot, producing rich and smooth wines, and features some iconic properties such as Château Pétrus.

ST EMILION

Located on the right bank of the Dordogne, St Emilion is one of the most important Bordeaux appellations in terms of both quality and quantities produced. Merlot is the predominant grape variety and is perfectly suited to the clay and chalk-rich soils here. Cabernet Franc and Cabernet Sauvignon are also grown. Given the high proportion of Merlot, these wines are much more approachable in youth than the more tannic examples produced on the left bank.

Château Sociando-Mallet 2016

92pts

Vinous

"An attractive bouquet of cranberry, wild strawberry, cedar and light loamy aromas. The palate is medium-bodied with grainy tannins, though it is well balanced with a fresh, quite mineral-driven finish that has grace and charm."

Château Château Ormes de Pez 2020

91pts

The Wine Advocate

"Aromas of sweet cherries, berries and spices framed by creamy new oak, introduce the 2020 Ormes de Pez, a medium to full-bodied, ample and fleshy wine that's polished and seamless, with a generous core of fruit and an extroverted, charming profile."

Château Calon-Ségur 2000

95pts

Vinous

"Dark-fleshed fruit, gravel, incense, tobacco, dried leaves and earthy notes open first in the beguiling bouquet. The 2000 is deep and layered in the glass, qualities that become even more prominent over time. Insistent tannins have finally softened, resulting in a wine that has arrived at its first plateau of maturity. The 2000 is an absolute joy to taste."

CHATEAU CALON-SEGUR

Once part of the mighty Ségur estate, which at various times included Lafite and Mouton Rothschild, the Marquis de Ségur was very fond of Calon, and no account of Calon-Ségur is complete without reporting his assertion that "I make my wine at Lafite and Latour but my heart is in Calon". Doubtless this is the reason why Calon-Ségur features a heart motif on its label, and throughout the exquisite château buildings.

"The palate is simply electric, charged with an energy and depth of flavors that seem to defy the elegance and ethereal nature of its medium-bodied weight, featuring super ripe, densely pixelated tannins that firmly frame the myriad of fruit and floral sparks, finishing with epic length. Just. Magic."

CHATEAU COS D'ESTOURNEL

The archetypal St Estèphe and almost as famous for its fantastic folly-like château building as it is for a wine which defines its commune, Cos is simply one of the must-have names. They are noted for producing amazing wines in every vintage, often being awarded the accolade of wine of the vintage in lesser years.

Medium-bodied, it is jam-packed with rich, spicy black fruit preserves, with floral accents and a velvety texture, finishing long and fragrant. So. Good."

CHATEAU DUHART-MILON ROTHSCHILD

With 76 hectares of Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot and Cabernet Franc, Duhart is managed by Eric Kohler, technical director at Château Lafite Rothschild. It has the distinguished and reserved character so typical of Pauillac.

"The Rothschild family has invested heavily in this estate over the last 20 years in order to upgrade the quality, and their investments have certainly paid off handsomely."

The Wine Advocate

"Black raspberries, red currants and crushed plums plus touches of cigar boxes, violets and underbrush with a waft of tilled loam. Medium-bodied and elegantly styled with wonderful freshness and depth, it is compellingly earthy/minerally in the mouth with a frame of seductively silky yet very firm tannins and culminating in a very long, racy and pure finish."

CHATEAU LAFITE ROTHSCHILD

Lafite consistently produces one of the wines of the vintage year in, year out. In a great vintage it is a reasonable assumption that Lafite will have produced the greatest Cabernet Sauvignon in the whole Médoc and fashioned a wonderful, long-lived, currant and cedar scented, ethereal beauty.

98+pts

The Wine Advocate

"Medium to deep garnet-purple colored, it opens with provocative floral scents of roses and violets over a core of fresh blackcurrants, chocolate-covered cherries and black raspberries with hints of fertile loam, unsmoked cigars and black tea. Medium to full-bodied, firm, grainy and packed with muscular fruit, it has an epically long, savory finish sparked by floral notes."

CHATEAU LATOUR

Latour is considered one of the most powerful, dense Pauillacs to be found and it needs to age. A very high percentage of Cabernet Sauvignon (sometimes as much as 94%) lends the wine huge power and structure. Tasting notes include leather and spice, enhanced by intense blackcurrant fruit.

Château Lynch Bages 2018

96pts

The Wine Advocate

"It soars out of the glass with a magnificently expressive nose of blueberry compote, black cherry preserves and blackcurrant pastilles, plus suggestions of dark chocolate, licorice, tar and violets with a waft of hoisin. The medium to full-bodied palate is just as impactful as the nose, coating the mouth with juicy black berry and spicy layers, supported by firm, grainy tannins and seamless freshness, finishing long with a refreshing earthiness coming through at the end."

CHATEAU LYNCH-BAGES

Always something of a relative bargain, Lynch-Bages was awarded a derisory Fifth Growth status in 1855, perhaps the greatest travesty in the whole classification, as the property regularly performs at 'super second' level. For many people, Lynch-Bages epitomises the style of Pauillac with its cedary pencil shaving aromas and densely packed cassis fruit.

Château Mouton Rothschild 2005

98pts

Vinous

"One of the real highlights on the Left Bank, the 2005 Mouton Rothschild is a dark, potent Pauillac. Black cherry, plum, chocolate, spice and leather all take shape in the glass. The 2005 is a dense, powerful and explosive wine endowed with tremendous energy and pure power."

CHATEAU MOUTON ROTHSCHILD

Château Mouton Rothschild is the only Château to achieve reclassification since 1855 when the wines from Bordeaux were sorted into five tiers according to the prices they were fetching on the market at the time. This unique recategorisation took place in 1973 when Mouton Rothschild entered into the realm of the top five Châteaux (Premiers Grands Crus Classés). The bottles from this vineyard are famous not only for the powerful yet deceptively smooth wine inside, but also for the colourful labels brought out each year which are designed by a different artist for each vintage.

Château Pichon Baron 2015

97pts

The Wine Advocate

"Medium to deep garnet-purple in color, the 2015 Pichon-Longueville Baron is enticingly scented of chocolate-covered cherries, crushed red currants and mulberries with touches of baking spices, potpourri and bay leaves plus a hint of fallen leaves. Sumptuously elegant, refreshing and medium-bodied with gorgeous, expressive, perfumed red fruits and very fine, very firm tannins, it has a persistent, perfumed finish."

CHATEAU PICHON BARON

Château Pichon Baron is one part of the split of the large Pichon estate. The fairytale château building and sumptuous label provide a glimpse of the beauty of the wine in the bottle. Occasionally overshadowed by the other half of the split, Château Pichon Lalande, the quality of more recent vintages of this wine is providing ample indication that the two properties were once one.

"Juicy and sleek in feel, with a gloss of singed vanilla and alder over the core of lively blackberry, fig and black currant paste flavors. Singed charcoal and sweet tobacco notes score the finish and leave a mouthwatering feel."

CHATEAU PICHON LALANDE COMTESSE

Pichon Lalande is made with a relatively high proportion of Merlot, and renowned as providing a softer, more tender version of Pauillac. The quality in vintages from the mid-eighties onwards has been nothing less than breathtaking.

Château Pontet-Canet 2010

100pts

The Wine Advocate

"Whoa—the nose explodes with a vast array of black fruit preserves and savory nuances: plum preserves, blackcurrant cordial, black cherry coulis and licorice with wafts of dried lavender, melted chocolate, charcuterie, black olives, truffles and camphor plus a hint of sandalwood. The full-bodied palate is completely filled with black fruits, exotic spices and earthy nuances with a firm foundation of ripe, grainy tannins and bold freshness, finishing with epic length and depth."

CHATEAU PONTET-CANET

Proprietor Alfred Tesseron produces all his wines by wholly organic methods, a rarity in Bordeaux. A superstar wine from a property that borders Mouton Rothschild, it is outperforming its historic reputation by perhaps the greatest degree in the whole of Bordeaux.

Château Beychevelle 2016

95+pts

The Wine Advocate

"Medium to deep garnet-purple colored, it is a little broody to begin, opening slowly to reveal subtle savory notes of dried herbs, charcuterie and black olives before breaking through to a profound core of warm cassis, baked black plums, red currant jelly and candied violets. The palate is medium-bodied and delicately played with a quiet intensity of tightly wound nuances and fantastic freshness, finishing with a lingering savory lift."

CHATEAU BEYCHEVELLE

According to legend, the name Beychevelle came from the Gascon 'bêcha vêla', meaning 'lower the sails'. This was a reference to the fact that ships passing by the château lowered their sails in deference and allegiance to Admiral Jean-Louis Nogaret de la Valette, the property's first owner under Henri III. To this day, Beychevelle has the prettiest and most dramatic impact on the riverbank of the Gironde estuary.

CLOS DU MARQUIS

Clos du Marquis is the second wine of Château Léoville Las Cases, cut from the same cloth and regularly a match for many high-classed growths. However, unlike with most second wines, the grapes actually come from a separate area of vineyards (rather than younger or less successful vines) surrounded on all sides by other Second Growths.

Château Ducru Beaucaillou 2018

98pts

The Wine Advocate

"Deep purple-black colored, it has a powerful nose of baked black cherries, blackberry preserves and crème de cassis with nuances of menthol, pencil lead, cedar chest and Indian spices, plus fragrant wafts of violets and licorice emerging after a few minutes. Medium to full-bodied, the palate bursts with impactful black fruits and exotic spices layers, supported by firm, ripe grainy tannins and bags of freshness, finishing on a lingering fragrant earth note."

CHATEAU DUCRU BEAUCAILLOU

The name of this estate comes from the former owner, Mr. Ducru, and a description of the land it comprises: 'beau caillou' literally means 'beautiful pebble'. Pebbles and small stones permit good drainage of the soil, and their presence in the soils of the Médoc contributes hugely to the quality of the wines.

Château Gloria 2017

94pts

Vinous

"The 2017 Gloria is just as delicious from bottle as it was from barrel. A rush of bright red cherry and plum fruit, blood orange, iron, dried flowers and mint gives the 2017 its sense of energy. Medium in body and full of character, Gloria is one of the highlights of the vintage. Don't miss it."

CHATEAU GLORIA

Château Gloria was not around in the 1855 classification of Bordeaux Châteaux, and was therefore not graded. Whilst no one can really say what level it might have been awarded, most commentators agree that Gloria offers tremendous value for money, and is a great example of the St Julien style.

Château Léoville Las Cases 2014

96+pts

The Wine Advocate

"A brilliant effort, the 2014 Léoville Las Cases is a tightly wound classic that will delight purists. Mingling aromas of dark berries and cassis with hints of bitter chocolate, sweet spices, cigar wrapper, pencil shavings and sweet new oak, it's medium to full-bodied, layered and concentrated, with tangy acids and a deep, firm mid-palate framed by rich, powdery tannins."

CHATEAU LEOVILLE BARTON

Léoville Barton is owned by Anthony Barton, a gently unassuming man who thinks that all wine, including his own, should be for drinking, and not just investment. The result being that his goal is to make the best Cabernet Sauvignon dominated wine he can. Great value and classy style in concequence.

Brane-Cantenac
2016
96-98pts
The Wine Advocate

"It has a beautifully defined, very detailed bouquet with mineral-rich black fruit laced with cedar and graphite notes, living up to its nom de plume as the "Pauillac of Margaux." The palate is simply the best that I have ever tasted at the estate, without question. This has presence, but also weightlessness, filigree tannin and perfectly pitched acidity, with real intensity and drive."

CHATEAU BRANE-CANTENAC

This historic estate dates back to the 18th century and was renamed Château Brane-Cantenac after its acquisition by Baron Hector de Brane in 1833. Currently owned and run by Henri Lurton, the château has undergone major investment since the 1990s, ushering in a golden era marked by some of the finest vintages in its history. The wines are elegant and classic, noted for their aromatic complexity and excellent aging potential.

95pts
Wine Spectator

"Very expressive, with violet and lilac notes followed by creamed plum and mulled blackberry and black currant fruit flavors. Subtle anise, juniper and sanguine notes thread the very long finish."

CHATEAU GISCOURS

The high percentage of Merlot in the blend accounts for the wine's depth and richness of flavour as well as its approachability in youth. A classic Margaux name, now fully revitalised and back to fulfilling its colossal potential.

Château Malescot St Exupéry 2016

95pts

Vinous

"The 2016 Malescot Saint Exupéry has a well-defined bouquet of ample red currant, cranberry and strawberry fruit laced with rose petal and hints of graphite. There is something almost Saint Julien–like about the aromatics. The palate is medium-bodied with supple, graphite-infused black fruit, and quite linear and poised, but it conveys a genuine sense of energy and tension toward the classic finish. A magnificent Margaux."

CHATEAU MALESCOT ST EXUPERY

Simon Malescot was King's Counsel to Louis XIV and Jean-Baptiste de St Exupéry was the grandfather of aviation pioneer and author, Antoine. The property is one of Margaux's prettiest and so is their wine. 50% Cabernet Sauvignon gives the wine a wonderful blackcurrant flavour and supple texture, whilst the addition of Merlot lends softness and a rounded character.

Château Margaux 2000

99pts

The Wine Advocate

"Noticeably deep in color, the bouquet rivets you to the seat with copious red berry fruit, clove and truffle, hints of cedar emerging with time. As the aromatics open and aerate, the fruit profile seems to darken and manifests blackcurrants and bilberries. The palate is medium-bodied with filigree tannin. There is immense depth and symmetry conveyed by this First Growth, quite masculine for the estate with a gentle but insistent grip. It is a brilliant wine that flirts with perfection."

CHATEAU MARGAUX

Possibly the most regal of Bordeaux's château buildings, Margaux is a byword for family-owned quality, panache and style. The softest and most approachable of the First Growth Châteaux, Margaux is a rounded, delicious wine that nevertheless reveals layer upon layer of spice, vanilla, smoke, fruit, coffee and cedar complexity.

Château Palmer 2005

97pts

The Wine Advocate

"The 2005 Château Palmer is a legend in the making. Apparently the vines received 57% less rain than average, yet the 2005 shrugs off any water deficiency and has nurtured a wondrously pixelated bouquet, whereby mineralité shines through the black cherry and blueberry fruit. Search deeper and you discover veins of graphite that impart a Pauillac-like allure."

CHATEAU PALMER

Boasting one of the most impressive château buildings in the Médoc (which alas has never been lived in), Palmer is widely regarded as the greatest Third Growth property and is more than occasionally believed to have produced the wine of the vintage, not just in Margaux, but in the whole of the region.

"Medium to deep garnet-purple colored, the nose is at once profound and arresting, offering drop-dead gorgeous Morello cherries, lilacs and red rose scents with a core of Black Forest cake, warm blackcurrants and blueberry preserves plus wafts of sandalwood and underbrush. Medium-bodied, the elegantly crafted palate is completely packed with intense floral, mineral and cassis-laced flavors with a firm frame of very finely pixelated tannins and seamless freshness, finishing very long and achingly stunning."

Château Lafleur 2000

Vinous

"Captivating scents of blackberry, raspberry, crushed stone, and struck flint tincture that I have remarked on previously. The palate is medium-bodied with damn near perfect line of acidity, utterly harmonious and frankly this is difficult to fault. CHATEAU HAUT BRION

Haut Brion was the first wine estate to start bottling its own wine in the early 17th century, rather than selling in bulk to négociants, and it consequently gained in fame and value thanks in particular to claret lovers in London. It is therefore considered the forefather of the great Bordeaux growths. Naturally it was placed at the top of the famous 1855 Médoc Classification.

Probably the greatest and certainly the most famous red wine in all of Bordeaux, and perhaps the world. Château Angélus
2016
98+pts
The Wine Advocate

"The 2016 Angélus erupts from the glass with powerful notes of blackberry pie, ripe black cherries and juicy black plums with an undercurrent of star anise, rose petals, chocolate mint, pencil shavings and woodsmoke plus a waft of allspice. The palate is pure decadence. Medium to full-bodied, rich and generously fruited, this wine is by no means heavy—it positively glimmers with freshness and vivacity, lending an ethereal nature to all that richness and power, beautifully framed by velvety tannins and finishing with epic length."

CHATEAU ANGELUS

Château Angélus was officially recognised as a Premier Grand Cru Classé in 1996. It has consistently delivered superb wines ever since. Powerful and massive, it has concentrated blackcurrant, redcurrant and leather on the palate given structure by firm tannins which soften with time. As with almost all St Emilion wines, this is made principally from Merlot.

The Wine Advocate

"Deep garnet-purple in color, it tumbles effortlessly out of the glass with a gorgeous perfume of candied violets, preserved plums, black cherry compote and Ceylon tea with hints of kirsch, powdered cinnamon, chocolate box and fertile loam. The medium to full-bodied palate is packed with juicy black fruit layers, supported by plush, oh-so-soft tannins and well-knit freshness, finishing long and fragrant."

CHATEAU BEAU-SEJOUR BECOT

Beau-Séjour Bécot is in the upper echelon of Bordeaux right bank producers but, unusually, the property lost but then regained its Premier Grand Cru status as a result of vineyard acquisition. It was relegated to Grand Cru Classé after the incorporation of some non Premier Grand Cru vineyards, but having proven that they could produce not just typical, but great St Emilion wine, in 1996 it was reinstated as a Premier Grand Cru and deservedly so.

CHATEAU CANON

Château Canon is one of the most prestigious estates in St Emilion. Renowned for its exceptional terroir and winemaking heritage, the property traces its roots back to the 18th century when it was first planted with vines by Jacques Kanon, the naval officer from whom it takes its name. The estate is experiencing something of a renaissance, with recent vintages earning high praise from critics while, for now at least, still offering exceptional value.

"With coaxing, it unfurls to reveal beguiling notions of ripe black cherries, mulberries, licorice, baking spices and smoked meats with touches of incense and potpourri plus wafts of cast iron pan and crushed rocks. Full-bodied, very rich, very firm/taut and with very ripe, fine-grained tannins, it allows a glimpse at its incredible depth of flavors with a very long multi-layered finish. Wow."

CHATEAU CHEVAL BLANC

What really sets Cheval Blanc apart is its unusual mixture of grape varieties planted as a result of its position on the gravel outcrop that dominates St Emilion. The main grape is Cabernet Franc, augmented by the more expected Merlot and only a minuscule amount of Cabernet Sauvignon. The origin of the White Horse name is lost in time.

"The 2014 Figeac has a nose that is a cut above some of its peers, fresher and more vibrant, in for the long haul with raspberry and wild strawberry, autumn bonfire, pencil box and just a touch of meat juices. Lovely! The palate is medium-bodied with fine-boned tannins, focused and classic in style, with greater body and firmness on the finish than its peers. A wonderful mélange of Left and Right Bank, which is what Figeac essentially is."

CHATEAU FIGEAC

Situated, like Cheval Blanc, on the gravel soils of the west of the region, Figeac uses around 70% Cabernet in its wine, making it the most Médoc-like of the right bank properties. A typographically exquisite label and classic winemaking also mark out this fine estate.

"Medium to deep garnet-purple in color, the 2016 La Gaffeliere opens with compelling wild blueberries, freshly crushed plums and kirsch scents plus hints of garrigue, underbrush, rose hip tea and pencil lead. Medium to full-bodied, the palate is wonderfully elegant with a soft, velvety texture and seamless freshness carrying the multilayered fruit to a long finish."

CHATEAU LA GAFFELIERE

Still in the hands of the Malet Roquefort family after more than three centuries, Château La Gaffelière is one of the oldest family-owned properties in St Emilion. A leper colony existed in the area during the medieval period, hence the name Gaffelière, deriving from the old French word 'gaffet' meaning 'leper'. Today the vineyards comprise 22 hectares with an enviable position between those of Château Ausone and Château Pavie.

"A fabulously expressive nose of crème de cassis, baked plums and blueberry preserves, leading to an impressive array of nuances, featuring notions of dark chocolate, camphor, licorice, rose petals and fertile loam, plus hints of crushed rocks and iron ore. The rich, full-bodied palate offers layer upon layer of opulent black and blue fruits with loads of exotic spice sparks and pretty floral and mineral accents, supported by firm, super plush tannins and remarkable tension, finishing with epic length and depth."

CHATEAU PAVIE

The new style of production from Château Pavie, with more than the occasional overtone of Napa Merlot, is a departure for Bordeaux. However, the sensational wines reflect not only the local terroir, but also the warmth of vintages since 1990.

It came as no surprise in 1996 when the wines were elevated to 1er Grand Cru Classé status where they have remained ever since.

The northern Rhône contains some of the oldest vineyards in France producing elegant wines made from Syrah which are both powerful and have the capacity to age. Hermitage and Côte-Rôtie are the stars of the north, needing at least a decade to show at their best. St Joseph and Cornas produce more accessible examples whilst Crozes-Hermitage offers great value for money.

The valley floor opens out in the southern Rhône, with vines planted low to the ground in goblet formation to protect them from the strong mistral winds. The soils here are made up of round stones from the ancient river bed and these retain the warmth of the day, helping to fully ripen the grapes of the heat-loving Grenache. The best wine villages of the Côtes du Rhône have been given their own appellation such as Gigondas and the well-known Châteauneuf-du-Pape.

Following the Rhône River from north to south, this southern French wine region is 250 km in length with 200 communes producing wine in a wide range of styles.

Côte-Rôtie Brune et Blonde E. Guigal 2021

"The 2021 Côte-Rôtie Brune et Blonde is expressive—indeed, almost exuberant for the vintage—bursting with a sweet bouquet of pepper, spices, dark berries and licorice, mingled with gently vanillin oak. The Wine Advocate

"Sharing some similarities to the le Meal (yet its from a very different terroir), with its full-bodied, decadent, heavenly profile that somehow stays pure, poised and elegant, the 2012 Ermitage le Pavillon (767 cases) offers an extraordinary perfume of cassis, raspberries, crushed flowers, powdered rock and smoked earth."

Germany has 102,000 hectares under vine and is the tenth largest wine producer in the world. Home to the world's greatest Rieslings, white grapes make up 65% of all plantings. The cool climate produces wines with incredible precision and focused fruit flavours balanced by finely tuned acidity.

Austrian wine recently came into its own following a wine scandal in 1985 which led to a complete restructuring of the industry, making Austria one of the top countries in the world for production standards. The wines display great elegance and acidity with delicate aromatics.

"A wonderfully open nose speaks of lemon on the 2021 Riesling Ürziger Würzgarten Spätlese White Capsule but underneath something richer and more solid appears, like lemon-scented cocoa butter. Unusual and intriguing. The solidity creates a concentrated richness, without an ounce of fat. The palate is condensed, pure, and tingles with little fillips of citrus exploding here and there. ITALY

Home to more than 2000 grape varieties and some of the oldest wine regions in the world, Italy produces more wine than any other country with the 2018 harvest reaching 48.5 million hectolitres. Italy has over 1 million vineyards under cultivation, producing wines from almost every region, renowned worldwide for their broad variety.

ITALY

Each region has its own style with the most significant in terms of both quantity and quality being Piedmont, Tuscany and Veneto.

Italy's best-known grapes are Sangiovese, Nebbiolo, Pinot Grigio, Barbera and Montepulciano alongside international varieties, in particular Cabernet Sauvignon and Merlot.

PIEDMONT

Located in the north west of Italy, Piedmont has a continental climate influenced by its proximity to both the Alps and the Ligurian Apennines. Since Roman times, Piedmont has been considered the fine wine capital of Italy and has the country's highest proportion of DOC and DOCG wines even though it only accounts for 7% of its production.

Gavi DOCG is Piedmont's best-known dry white wine made from the Cortese grape grown around the town of Gavi itself. Whites are also made from the indigenous Roero near the town of Arneis. Nebbiolo is the king of red wine grapes in Piedmont and is planted on all of the best sites. Nebbiolo, the variety behind Barbaresco and Barolo, produces wines with pronounced aromas of tar, roses and truffles which age fantastically, often needing at least ten years before they really come into their own.

Barbera and Dolcetto are grown around the towns of Asti and Alba producing easier drinking styles that are more accessible from a younger age.

BARBARESCO

A third of the size of neighbouring Barolo, and 50 years younger, Barbaresco is renowned for producing some of Italy's finest wines. Thanks largely to the efforts of Angelo Gaja, the region has been recognised for its real potential and it was granted DOCG status is 1980.

BAROLO

Barolo DOC was founded in 1966 and upgraded to DOCG status in 1980, which seems appropriate given that this is not only Italy's most famous wine region, but is also widely regarded to be its best. Reds are made from 100% Nebbiolo which capitalises on the long, warm summers and the unique terroir, with each village sitting upon its own hill surrounded by vineyards.

TUSCANY

Italy's oldest wine region, Tuscany is also its fifth largest, producing the third highest amount of DOCG quality wines despite only producing around 6% of the country's volume of wine. This is largely due to the region's poor soils which encourage producers to grow small yields of high quality grapes.

Tuscany has a unique terrain with more than two thirds of it being hilly which benefits the predominant grape variety, Sangiovese, as it needs direct sunlight to ripen fully. Two of Italy's most famous wines are found in Tuscany – Chianti and Brunello di Montalcino.

SUPER TUSCAN

The term 'Super Tuscan' first emerged in the 1970s to describe a new wave of wine being made outside of DOC/DOCG regulations to a very high standard, and commanding high prices to match. Many of these wines achieved a cult following and as a result, the Italian classification system was changed to give these DOC or DOCG status. Some producers still prefer to use IGP Toscana.

The Wine Advocate

"This vintage is delicate but determined, powerful but fragile all at the same time. The bouquet is shy to start off and requires (at this young stage when I tasted the wine) ample time to aerate. Once it unwinds, the wine offers fresh citrus, orchard fruit, toasted almond and spice. Only partial malolactic fermentation is completed, so the wine's energy and inner nerve is very much intact. Flint and mineral play important supporting roles."

"Sweet herbs and spices waft up from the 2023 Pinot Bianco Versalto as swirling unlocks further depths of green melon complicated by nuances of flint. It washes across the palate with a laser-focused wave of saline-mineral-infused orchard fruits. This takes on a slight tropical tinge through the finish, as hints of mango and kiwi linger. Ultimately, it is beautifully balanced and an excellent value for a Pinot Bianco of this quality."

"Wild herbs, spiced citrus, peach and a hint of spearmint form an inviting bouquet as the 2020 Sauvignon Sanct Valentin blossoms in the glass. This contrasts silky textures against mineral-tinged orchard fruits and a spritz of lime to create a push and pull of savory tension. It finishes with notes of grapefruit and sour melon, while keeping the mouth watering for more. This wickedly-fresh Sauvignon keeps the energy high from start to finish."

A pioneer in the study and revival of Barolo vineyard sites, Alfredo was among the first producers to craft single-vineyard expressions of Nebbiolo rather than blending multiple crus.

CA' MARCANDA

The Gaja family's Tuscan project, founded by Angelo Gaja as he expanded beyond the family's historic roots in Barbaresco. Purchased in 1996, the estate's name comes from a Piedmontese expression meaning "the house of endless negotiations," a nod to the lengthy discussions required to complete the acquisition. The wines are a modern, elegant expression of the unique climate and terroir of Bolgheri, shaped by Ca' Marcanda's characteristically meticulous vineyard work and winemaking philosophy.

"The wine is absolutely teeming with sensorial spirit that is transmitted through the bounty of the bouquet and the solid tannins of the mouthfeel. Nothing about the wine goes unnoticed or unchecked. Its many working pieces fit together with precision like a well-oiled machine. The 2015 vintage is characterized by a level of sheer exuberance that also defined the 2004 and 2007 vintages. Yet, it also reveals similar power, directness and linearity that we saw in the 2010 vintage. The 2015 Masseto takes the best of all those past vintages and confines those qualities to this single, spectacular bottle."

Delicate and light on its feet, the 2018 is a regal wine that is going to need a number of years to come into its own. Sassicaia is the most finessed of Bolgheri's top wines. That is very much the case in 2018 as well. I loved it."

TENUTA SAN GUIDO

This is the winery that coined the phrase 'Super Tuscan', producing Cabernet blends from the 1940s due to the Marchese's love for Bordeaux wines. Originally only able to call these wines Vino da Tavola, it is a testament to the quality of Sassicaia that the DOC Bolgheri Sassicaia was created specifically for it. Guidalberto is the second wine of this incredible winery.

Solaia Antinori
2016

100pts
The Wine Advocate

"The 2015 vintage shows more overall opulence and sweetness that extends to the pronounced textural richness of the mouthfeel. The 2016 vintage, on the other hand, is more chiseled and sharp with mineral shadings of campfire ash and graphite at the rim of its dark fruit. The mouthfeel is more streamlined and tight at its core, suggesting that the wine will unfold and soften beautifully with time. The personalities of the two wines are distinct, yet my admiration for each is identical."

SOLAIA

Solaia (derived from the Italian word for sun) was first produced in 1978 from a parcel of Cabernet within the Tignanello vineyard that was deemed to be of such high quality that the Marchese decided to vinify it separately. Since then the quantity has increased from the original 3,600 bottles and the Solaia vineyard now consists of 20ha. Solaia is only produced in the best vintages and truly reflects its terroir. The 2016 is especially dark and brooding, and yet the tannins are incredibly polished to the point of being perceptible. In the glass, the 2016 is complete and regal, perhaps because of the super-classic blend of 80% Sangiovese, 15% Cabernet Sauvignon and 5% Cabernet Franc."

TIGNANELLO

Antinori's flagship wine, Tignanello, was the first wine in Tuscany to blend the local Sangiovese with non-traditional varieties, and became one of the focal points of the Tuscan revolution that occurred over the latter part of the 20th century. A blend of 80% Sangiovese, 15% Cabernet Sauvignon and 5% Cabernet Franc, aged for 12 months in small oak barriques, this classic Super-Tuscan combines Chianti-like suppleness with Bordeaux-esque style.

Spain is the third largest producer of wines in the world with over a million acres under vine, more than any other country. Given the diversity of the country's landscape and climates, and the fact that Spain is home to 60 regional DOs, it's hardly surprising that it produces wines in a variety of styles.

From the fresh whites made from Albariño in Rías Baixas to top end reds from Rioja and Ribera del Duero, there is a huge amount of exciting wine available, offering fantastic value for money.

RIOJA

Spain's most famous wine region, Rioja is situated in the north of the country just south of the Cantabrian Mountains. The wines are normally a blend of grapes, the majority being Tempranillo with some Garnacha and Graciano.

Traditional style Rioja is distinguished by long periods of barrel ageing, whereas the modern style favours the fruit and freshness of Tempranillo. Rioja is only ever released onto the market when it is ready to drink and as such, offers incredible value for money.

"The super elegant and austere 2021 As Sortes has a sense of harmony and subtleness that is moving. I found great purity, precision and symmetry in the wine. "Aged at length in barrels and large oak vats, the combination of aging methods brings out the wine's nuances in what was a generous year. A dark garnet-red in the glass. "This is riveting Cabernet Sauvignon with great intensity, a killer fragrance of burning embers, charcoal, gravel, blackberry, cassis and earth. Fabulously intense and full-bodied, with majestic flavor intensity, a skyscraper-like mouthfeel, incredible purity and length, and supple tannins, this magnificent wine comes closest to the great Harlan Estate itself."

"Striking aromatics of violets, forest floor, loamy soil nuances, blueberry, black raspberry and blackberry soar from the glass of this spectacular 2014. The acidity seems reasonable but on the lower side, the texture is magnificent, and the overall purity and equilibrium flawless. This is a wine pushing, even demanding, a three-digit score once again, but I'm holding back – at least for now."

The Wine Advocate

"This Grenache beauty sashays out of the glass with stunning kirsch, black raspberry, stewed tea, red roses, Chinese five spice and redcurrant jelly notes with nuances of wild blueberries and candied violets plus enticing cardamom, chargrill and black pepper undertones. Full-on decadent and full-bodied, the palate is also so vivacious, possessing amazing freshness and velvety/fine-grained tannins, finishing with tons of floral and red fruit layers. Pure hedonism."

SINE QUA NON

Some of the most collectible and hard to find wines from America. Sine Qua Non may literally mean 'indispensible', but given that such small quantities are made by Manfred Krankl's winery, these wines are only likely to find their way into the hands of a select few.

Whilst South America has been making wine since the 1500s, it wasn't until plantings of Malbec, Cabernet Sauvignon and Carménère were brought over from France in 1800 that Argentina and Chile started making wine of notable quality. Now producing wine across all price points, the industry is booming, with Argentina famous for Malbec from Mendoza, and Chile for fantastic cool climate Cabernet Sauvignon, Carménère and Sauvignon Blanc.

Generally considered to be the most successful New World wine producer, largely due to building a brand around Shiraz, Australia produces wines in a wide variety of styles.

Shiraz and Chardonnay make up 44% of total plantings, with increasing amounts of Cabernet Sauvignon and Pinot Noir being grown.

Thanks to the hard work of several very talented winemakers and the privatisation of the state-controlled winemaking cooperative, the South African wine industry has taken a huge change in direction in the last 20 years. Previously known for cheap wines that often ended up being distilled into brandy before hitting the shelves, the now vibrant industry is earning a reputation for some of the most exciting wines on the market. South Africa is famous for Chenin Blanc and Cabernet Sauvignon as well as the indigenous Pinotage.

"The 2018 Reserve Chardonnay was matured in 40% new oak for 10 months. Château Haut Brion

100pts
The Wine Advocate

"Reticent to begin, languidly revealing crushed black cherries, ripe black plums and wild blueberries with sparks of cinnamon stick, cloves, nutmeg, espresso, unsmoked cigars, tapenade, crushed rocks and lavender. The full-bodied palate possesses wonderfully complementary contrasts of bold black and blue fruit richness and delicately nuanced cherry fruit, baking spices and floral accents, strutting ripe, finely pixelated tannins and seamless acidity that is placed firmly in the background, finishing very long and with plenty of attitude."

Château Pavie

100pts
The Wine Advocate

"Very deep purple-black in color, it needs a little coaxing to begin, slowly unfurling to reveal a fragrant perfume of violets, chocolate-covered cherries, crushed blueberries and eucalyptus over a core of preserved plums, kirsch, black raspberries and crème de cassis plus hints of licorice and chargrilled meat. Full-bodied and built like a brick house, it has a solid foundation of firm, super ripe, grainy tannins and seamless freshness interknit with the black fruit preserves and minerally layers, finishing very long and very decadent. Superb!"

Solaia Antinori
2015
100pts
The Wine Advocate

"With the 2015 vintage, Solaia is liquid sunshine not just in name but also in fact. The bouquet is immediately soft and sensual with dark fruit, spice and sweet tobacco. The mouthfeel shows intensity and power, but you don't get any heavy residue from the dry extract. Indeed, the wine feels glossy, tonic and fresh. There is a bit of crunch or snap that comes thanks to the more acidity-prone Sangiovese grape. Finally, the tannins are beautifully sweet and ripe."

Robert Parker WINE ADVOCATE

NON-ALCOHOLIC

Non-alcoholic wines are produced using a variety of methods, either through traditional winemaking with the alcohol carefully removed, or by crafting beverages designed to capture the flavours and structure of wine without fermentation.

In recent years they have grown rapidly in popularity, driven by changing lifestyles and significant advances in production techniques. From crisp sparkling styles to fresh whites, delicate rosés and flavourful reds these drinks offer a refined alternative for those seeking the character of wine without the alcohol.

French Bloom La Cuvée Vintage
Jamie Goode

"100% aged in barrel for eight months without sulphites. From older Chardonnay vines on limestone, higher up. The aim is to replicate the taste of a 30 year old Champagne. This is gold with some brown hints, and it's aromatically really powerful with apple, nuts, honey and spice. Oxidative and complex. In the mouth there's tarte tatin, apricot, roast almond, honey and some nice spicy detail. There's some very old Champagne/Calvados character and it's very complex, with lovely depth."
